HESPERIA RECREATION AND PARK DISTRICT
WELCOMES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

The Hesperia Recreation & Park District is pleased to welcome Kyle Woolley as the new General Manager. Prior to Kyles' arrival, he served as the Parks and Recreation Superintendent at the City of Barstow located in San Bernardino County.

Kyle brings 20 years of experience in the field of Parks and Recreation with a background in both private and municipal organizations. The District encompasses 15 parks and facilities, organizes community events, holds classes and activities for all ages, and much more.

Kyle's experience in the public sector is complemented by his roles in the private sector, which have helped him develop a dynamic appreciation and understanding of the importance of superior customer service. Kyle values responsibility, collaboration, and community engagement and is looking forward to fostering these values within the District. Kyle's experience and forward thinking make him uniquely positioned to step into the General Manager role.
